PREMIER TAKES RESPONSIBILITY

In the Commons Declares King George Followed the Strictest Constitutional Practice

London, July 22.—Premier Asquith today assumed in the house of commons full responsibility for the speech made by the king yesterday to the political leaders who had met at Buckingham palace to confer on the Irish home rule problem. He set at rest various reports in circulation since the Ulster controversy has been acute and since the first announcement of the conference. The premier said:

"The speech was sent to me in the ordinary way by his majesty, the day before it was delivered and I take the entire responsibility for it. The king left it to the discretion of the conference to determine whether or not his speech should be published and the conference decided unanimously in favor of its publication. "His majesty throughout this matter has followed the strictest constitutional practice. He has not taken any step from the beginning until now except in consultation with and on the advice of his ministers."

Premier Asquith, being questioned as to the calling of the conference said with emphasis that all attending did so unconditionally. He declined to discuss why it was being held in Buckingham palace instead of in the house of commons.

When asked whether there would be an opportunity for discussion of the subject in the house Premier Asquith retorted: "Time will show."

Public interest in the crisis over the Irish home rule question overshadowed everything else in the British Isles today. When the representatives of the Liberals, Conservatives, Irish Nationalists and Ulster Unionists, arrived at Buckingham palace this morning to continue their conference with a view to a pacific settlement of the Ulster problem they found an enormous crowd assembled in the great open space before the gates of the palace. The various statesmen as they passed in were respectfully greeted by their sympathizers.

Having disposed of the preliminaries at yesterday's formal conference when King George addressed the assembled statesmen, the conferees arrived today prepared to tackle the crux of the problem—the area of Ulster to be excluded from the operation of the Irish home rule bill and the means of carrying out this exclusion. The clearing of the ground had also been effected during informal conferences yesterday afternoon and evening.

Openly, of course, the two sides declare they cannot withdraw from their present positions, but it is understood that Premier Asquith is likely to submit to the conference a proposal to allow the Protestant counties of Ulster to vote together on the question of exclusion from the home rule parliament and that he may also go so far as to change the time limit of six years embodied in the amending bill. Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, will make a fight to have the county of Tyrone included in this agreement and this proposition will it is thought provoke a conflict which will decide the fate of the conference. The Liberal newspapers in the provinces continue to criticize King George's speech which most of them will not believe the cabinet was not responsible for. They appear to be particularly irritable at the phrase "the cry of civil war is on the lips of the most responsible and sober-minded of my people," which they say might have been taken from the speeches of the Ulster leaders. These, says the Manchester Guardian, a leading Liberal newspaper, the king "thought fit to summon to his presence without a word of rebuke. The king has been unduly alarmed by the report of certain of his unofficial counselors and the impression thus made on his mind may, unless he wisely determines to be guided henceforth by his official counselors have consequences more serious than any that yet have been produced."

The Barnum-Bailey Circus

Hark! Hark! the dogs do bark! The circus is coming to town. Every thing is ready for the coming of the Barnum & Bailey circus to Logan for two performances only, Saturday afternoon and evening, August 8.

Every school boy in the land knows that the Barnum & Bailey circus is a national institution and that his respective native health suffers a terrible calamity if the "Greatest Show on Earth" fails to pay it an annual visit. The elation of the school kiddies knows no bounds now that they know the circus will be shown here.

Barnum & Bailey Circus management proudly announces that everything is new except the name and that is so well known to every city and port that it would be like slicing the world in two to separate that name from America's curusdom. As long as there's an American youth the name of Barnum & Bailey will exist. Its place in the amusement world has become so established that to get along without it would be like doing without our stable government at Washington, D. C.

There's an adage that "the proof of the pudding is the eating" and to show them that Barnum & Bailey's circus was offering the biggest square deal of show amusement the management took the circus into Madison Square Garden, New York, where thousands of people were entertained afternoon and night. "Once seen, never forgotten" goes for the Barnum & Bailey circus this season, as it spells the last word in circus realism.

Novelties galore are to be found with the big show this year not including the array of acts are many from Europe, which were imported especially for the present tour. The circus has a world of amusement features, wealth of circus colors, a menagerie of the wildest beasts imaginable, a regiment of clowns, numerous equestrian features, an army of performing animals from the jungles, caves and plains, popular music played by augmented bands in fact, a million of things that can only be found under the canvas of the big show.

A wonderfully brilliant pageant, "The Wizard Prince of Arabia" is a sumptuous eye feast of kaleidoscopic splendor, teeming with life, action and color; a realistic reproduction of the iridescent days of the land of a Thousand and one Knights blazing its way through the pages of ancient and modern history. This thrilling spectacular and colossal affair is just one of the divers big features with the Barnum & Bailey circus.

If there is one thing in this wide world that will make the old young and send the adult back to heyday of youth when he revelled in the circus merriment and circus spectacles, it is unquestionably the circus. Multifarious mysteries of amusement world, mysteries that will drive the diplomatic, dignified, decorous denizens into frenzy of delight are with the Barnum & Bailey circus—the fountain of perpetual youth.

WHY COMPLAIN?

A Trenton, Ky., dispatch says: At a rally of the leading wheat growers of Todd county, held in this city yesterday afternoon, it was decided not to sell wheat at present prices. Growers declare they cannot produce wheat at 70 or 75 cents a bushel and will feed it to their hogs before accepting such a price.

This is reminiscent of the period under the last Democratic national administration and tariff law, when Kansas farmers used corn for fuel. The Kentucky farmers can at any rate console themselves with the thought that anyway the damnable Payne-Ardich tariff laws is off the statute books, which ought to be a satisfactory substitute for good prices for farm products.—Indiana State Journal.
